Tim,

So what if you act like a snot. Know your only kidding. Its been great having you in English any other classes would have been impossible. Only chidding. Have a great summer and see you next year.

T.J.

Tim,
It's been fun Having you in my Spanish class and my Photography class this year. I remember all those times that I had you with your prints. Most of the time you were calm & collective, but other times you were a pain in the ass.
I hope to see you in some of my classes next year.

Your friend and classmate,
John J. Murray
THE GREATEST!

Tim,
One of these days I'm gonna get you back for those snide remarks.
Everytime I walk by you, you flinch so I know you scared. At any event, (nice use of words, huh?) Spanish has been a pain. Jeez, I never knew that I had 100 minutes in lateness. Have an eventful summer, huh, Tim!
Take it slow, You're OK.

Rich "Elroy" Rosen
(Soccer Forever)

Tim,
This year was kind of fun. Mrs. Budd was really hard, but she won't admit to it. She just loved to give us quizzes day in and day out. I won't ever forget Mrs. Vigorita. I absolutely HATED
her. I was so glad to see her go.
THEN there was Spanish. Good old
Mr. Guidi and his "palitos." Richard Rosen and Mike Pareshuk really loaded up on them. All in all, it was a pretty good year. Enjoy your summer and I hope you have a more successful year next year (not that this year was unsuccessful).
Love,
Janice

---

tim,
to bad I won't be here to joke around with you next year. I liked talking things out with you whether they were serious or ridiculous, (mostly rediculous)! Oh, Well I'll just be soaking up the California rays while you suffer with the Jersey humidity. Hope I get to talk to you before I leave,
Court

Remember: "I am King of the fum... gle...."
(Wizard of Oz)
I can't ever forget how you laughed when I told you about Monty Python's Flying Circus!

Tim,
You know I have no idea what to say;
but So I won't say anything and have a great summer and next year I'll get Involved and really ~~get~~ to know you, cause you are always involved.
Stephanie

Dear Brother Tim -

Another year gone by. Seems we both have a tendency to make the tensions and pressures greater then they are - but we made it through. There are many times I wish we could be in our senior year and get all this over with - but I know I will miss it all in future times. Well - not all of it but most of it. With the high school, people, and being in different classes it seems that ~~are~~ our friendship was at times drifting. But I was relieved and proud to find that we always remain true friends - the bond can never be broken! It's just a shame some can't accept a close friendship. I ~~k~~ know you must have received a lot of crap from some - I sure did - but we can overcome! I won't be home too much this summer but I'll keep in touch. You too, o.k? Thank you for being you - A true brother.
Have a great peaceful summer.
Love,
Sue

P.S. what you wrote in my book was sweet.

Tim,
This year
as been a good year and when we are seniors it will even be better. ~~Tim~~ I wish you were in some of my classes this year and you are a really sweet and kind person and always ready to help your friends. Good luck next year. Have a beautiful summer
Love in Christ
Sue

The Editorial Staff is proud to present the 1975 issue of TOP. We sincerely hope that it provides a complete and effective record of the activities, events, and people of this year at Summit High School. We hope too, that it is a more than satisfactory culmination to the 1974-75 year.

We would also like to extend our heartfelt thanks to those few people who aided us in our endeavors. Especially worthy of note are those who contributed their efforts in photography and finance. It is only with the hard work that they added to our own, that we were able to accomplish what we did. Also, we wish to thank our advisors, Mrs. Wick and Mr. Fein for their understanding and concern. Our appreciation abounds.

We hope our efforts will be rewarded in the only way possible, your enjoyment of TOP 1975.

THE EDITORS

You're the TOP
You're the Coliseum
You're the TOP
You're the Louvre Museum
You're the melody from a symphony by Strauss
You're a Bendel bonnet, a Shakespeare sonnet, a Mickey Mouse
You're the Nile
You're the Tower of Pisa
You're the smile on the Mona Lisa
I'm a worthless check, a total wreck, a flop
But if baby, I'm the bottom, you're the TOP
You're the TOP
You're Mahatma Ghandi
You're the TOP
You're Napoleon Brandy
You're the purple light of a summer night in Spain
You're the National Gallery, you're Garbo's salary, you're cellophane
You're sublime
You're a turkey dinner
You're the time on the Derby winner
I'm a toy balloon that is fated soon to pop
But if baby, I'm the bottom, you're the TOP
You're the TOP
You're a Waldorf Salad
You're the TOP
You're a Berlin ballad
You're the nimble tread of the feet of Fred Astaire
You're an O'Neill drama, you're Whistler's mama, you're Camembert
You're a rose
You're Inferno's Dante
You're the nose on the great Durante
I'm a lazy lout who is just about to stop
But if baby, I'm the bottom, you're the TOP

—Cole Porter

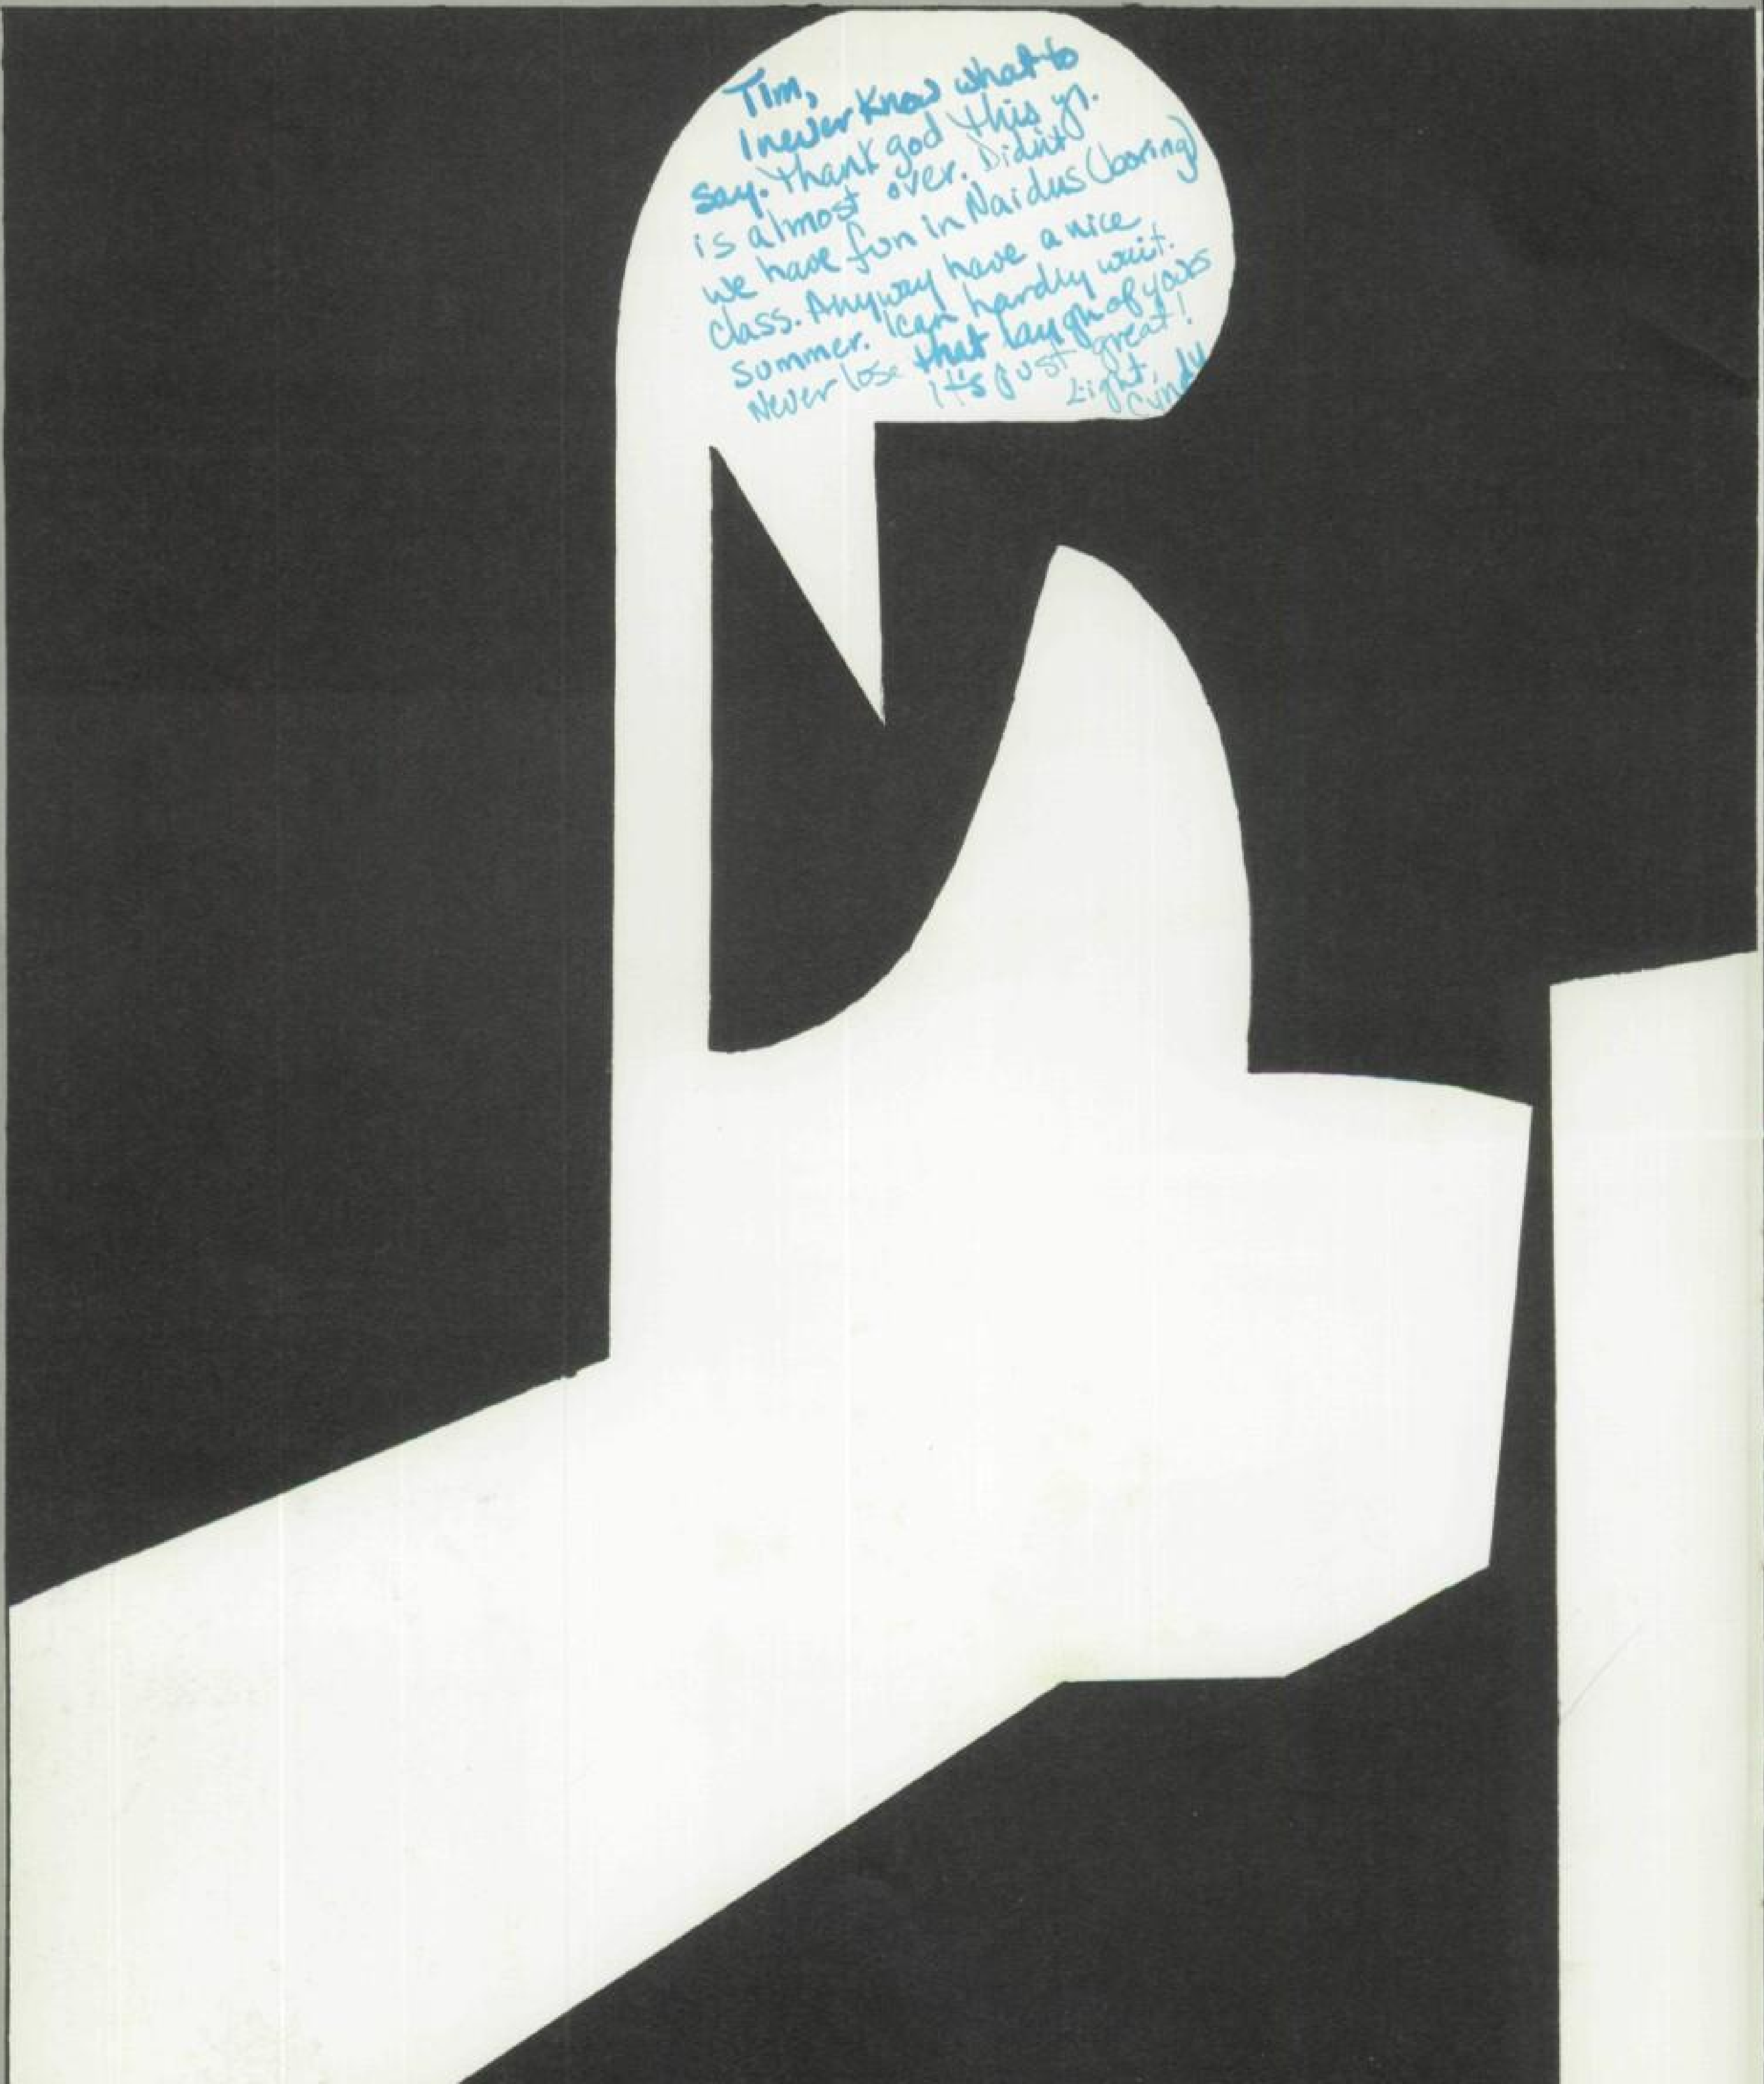
The Class of 1975 has chosen to dedicate this edition of the TOP to CHARLES BAGGOTT, who has been known for years by the teachers and students of the High School and Junior High as a consistently conscientious custodian, good friend, and reliable raconteur.

In his twenty-six years in the Summit Public Schools, his devotion to the smooth operation of the physical plant and his willingness to help all who request his assistance have been truly appreciated.

We have all grown to respect Charles Baggott; something which cannot be said for many in or out of education. It is because of this respect that we affectionately devote these pages of our book to "Charley."



Tim,
I never know what to
say. Thank god this yr.
is almost over. Didn't we have fun in Naidus (boring) class. Anyway have a nice summer. I can hardly wait.
Never lose that laugh of yours
It's just great!
Light,
Cindy

Tim,

What can I say to the sophomore "jock" of the 49-0 football team. Just joking, I know you're probably saying "I knew he was gonna do that". Well you're right. The swim team never lost 49-0 — Well I thought since I won't see you for a while I might as well "rub it in" a little more. I'm glad I got to know you this year because you're a really great person! I mean that to! I talked to you, and probably bored the hell out of you about topics from, football to the Prom. And you were always "crawling". Thanks A lot for all the help you gave me in photography.

Good Luck Always,

ANN
VERSITY

When thinking about the day I arrived in the United States, this year seems to have ended almost before it started. But when I look back on all the things I've seen, experienced and learned, it seems like I've been here for ages. Normally, I think, it would take me years to gather so many experiences—which should tell a little about the value of an organization like AFS.

My first impression of the American society was "big." Your cars, highways, supermarkets, houses —it was overwhelming!—coming from a farming area in a small country like Norway. I was also amazed by the size of Summit High and by the wide range of subjects and activities the school offers. For the first time in my life I was able to set up my own schedule according to my personal interests. Mr. Post and his music program gave me a valuable education which I never would be able to get in my own, strictly academic gymnas back home. And from the first day on I was met with a friendliness that soon made me find my place and feel confident in the school even though it sometimes seemed a little hard to get to know people in depth.

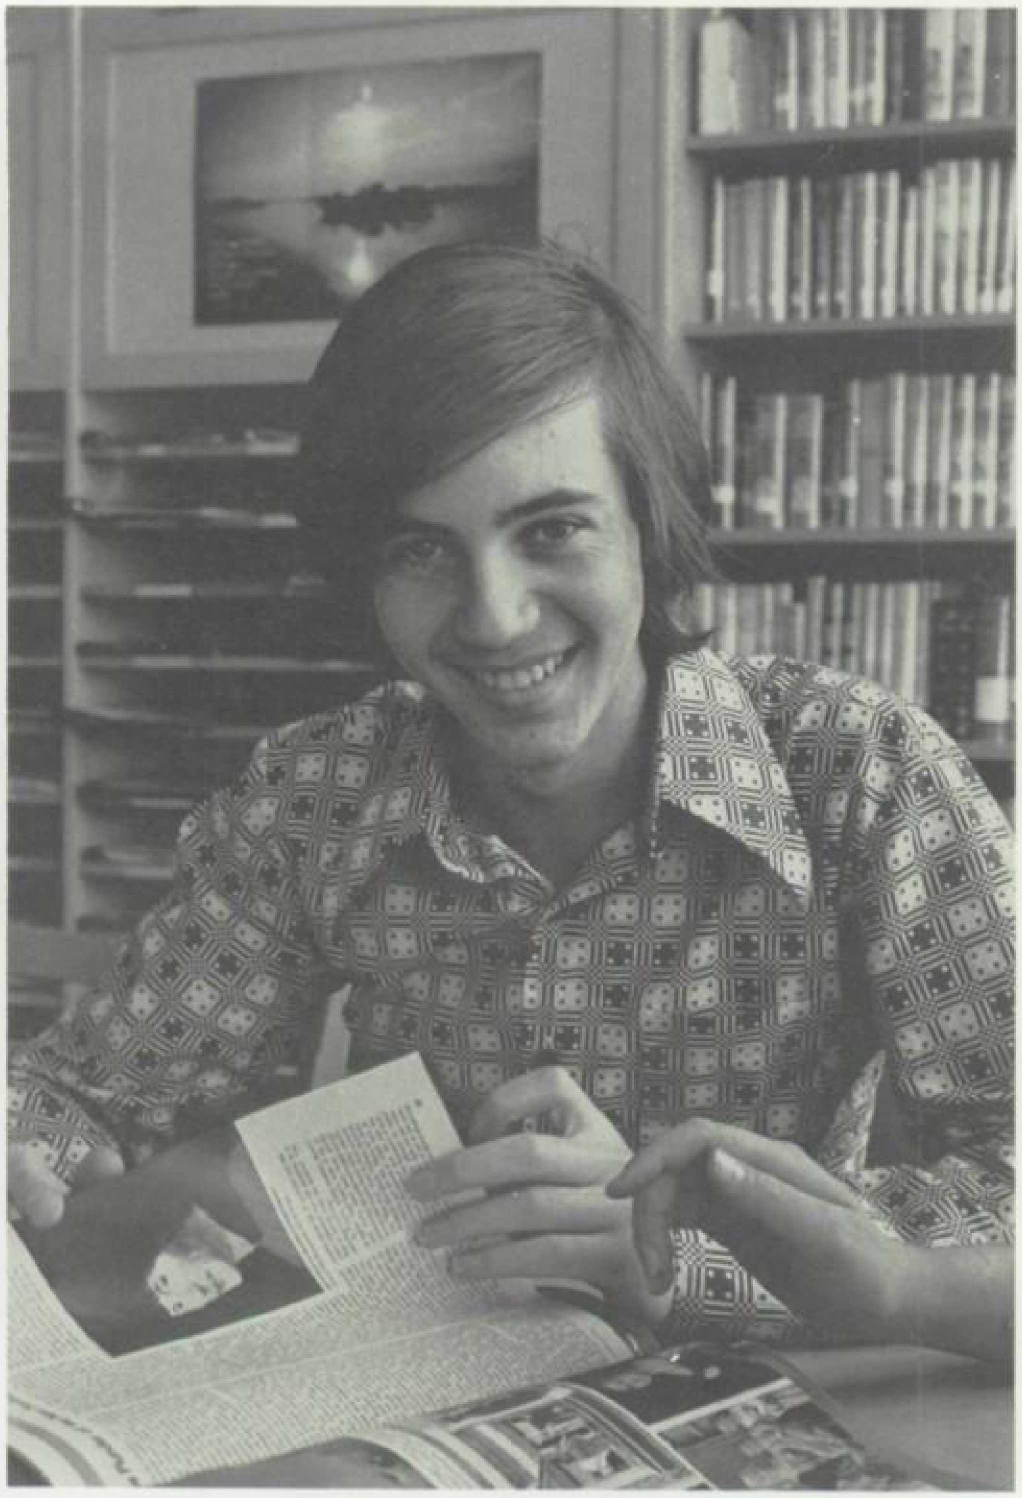
With New York so near by, I found that living in Summit meant an open way to everything thinkable that a civilization can offer. I had a feeling of being in "the center of the world," which, for me, was quite a fascinating thing. But there was one thing that I found this society lacked, and that I missed from home: a chance to "escape" into clean, undisturbed nature areas where you can get reminded that you still belong to the earth and depend on nature.

Compared to back home, life in New Jersey has a very fast pace. Things seemed to happen so quickly that I often found I didn't have time enough to think about what I was doing. It was always relaxing to come home to my American family, who always had unlimited time for me. Their complete adoption, advice and sincere friendship throughout the year surely has played the most important role in making my AFS year a very happy one.

Through AFS I made friends with students from all over the world, and that taught me things that I never could have learned from reading books. If there is a chance to make a peaceful world community, it must be through AFS. So dear AFS club: Don't stop selling pretzels!

And to all students at Summit High School: Thank you for everything, and GET 'EM WHILE THEY'RE HOT!

Mari Fiskum



I am Ousama Mortada from Baalbeck, Lebanon. I am glad I came here to Summit because it is a great town with its wonderful people.

It has been a great experience to live with new people and learn from them their good things and teach them about our good things.

Also, it was great to be a student in Summit High. It is such a great school. The kids are so friendly. The teachers are very nice, especially my chemistry teacher, Miss Johnson. She is a great teacher. She gave me a lot of help. Also, the other teachers are great too. As for my experience at school, I learned a lot of things—the way students live, the way of teaching, and a lot of other things.

I thank all members of AFS and the school also, for their help. Also, I thank AFS for giving me the chance to come to the United States and to live with a great family and go to a good high school and stay in a great town called Summit.

FOSTER CHILD PROGRAM

For several years now, the Student Council has supported a delightful Foster Child named Ly Thi Nhan. She lives in Saigon, North Vietnam with her mother, two younger sisters, a younger brother and an older brother.

Through the dedication of Gwyn Wilson, we were able to make regular correspondence with Ly Thi Nhan and, though her lifestyle differs greatly from ours, we were able to contribute to her life in at least this one small way. Our thanks for this highly commendable program.

STUDENT EXCHANGE COMMITTEE

The Exchange Committee existed for the purpose of sending students to and hosting students from various schools in the area, in hopes of obtaining new ideas on Student Government, Curriculum, and overall School Policy.

Under the leadership of Tony Marks the club met with enthusiasm and success, attracting more than sixty members and visiting nearly twice as many schools as last year's committee. The Student Exchange Committee proved itself to be a vital and effective organization of the Student Council.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

The Assembly Committee, co-chaired by Tina Seelig and Jacob Levine, attempted to locate and gather talent from both the school and the community and present it to the students in an assembly program during the school day.

After an extremely successful beginning with an off-Broadway production of Edward Albee's Zoo Story, the committee had some difficulties in scheduling other assemblies. However, those programs that they did manage to present met with much enthusiasm and the committee's efforts can be considered nothing but worthwhile.

Tim,
It was a good year and I did enjoy myself after I met you. You're a great guy and next year will be even more terrific now that I know a few people and ~~know~~ know that I'm almost sure I'll be participating in sports all year.
Have a good summer
Brenda

Tim, we had a fun year in Spanish with Mrs. Buschi. Don't forget "pata" or later. Well Tim, your a great kid, don't change. Have a great summer & good luck always.
Love,

Finishing the season with a victorious record of 18-2-2 the 1974 Varsity Soccer Team set several new records and gained two championship titles including the Suburban Conference for the first time and the N.J.S.I.A.A. Group III State Title. Along with playing more games in one season than any Summit team (22) they recorded 16 shutouts, scored 48 goals and allowed only 8 to enter their net.

The 1974 J.V. Soccer season was marked as a year wherein many players were able to develop new and better skills, enjoy the fruits of hard labor and bear maturely the burdens of disappointment.

The record was a good one, but it does not tell the entire story. The history of the season is a collage of seemingly small events: someone learning a new shot and taking joy in it; someone working himself into the starting lineup; another making a play he never thought possible; eleven young men being starters who never started before.

It was a season of learning through doing. Most of us learned that success comes as a result of toil. Work does not assure success but does make it highly probable, and it enhances that sweet taste we have so often heard about.

Summit's six-year dominance of the Suburban Conference ended on a bleak Thanksgiving Day as they were convincingly beaten by the team who replaced them as champions. Four conference victories placed us third in the standings, and credit should be given to a team which performed well, despite inexperience and a rash of unfortunate injuries.

The 1974 J.V. Football team had an excellent season. The final record was 5-1-1. The leading ball carrier was Kevin Kline, who averaged 4.5 yards a carry. Quarterback Mike DeSimone threw six touchdown passes and set three passing records: most passes—78, most completions—44, and most passing yardage—596. Tim Odell was the leading pass receiver. He also set three J.V. records with 29 receptions for 388 yards and he caught five touchdown passes. A potent offense averaged 18 points a game. A stingy defense had four shutouts and gave up only two touchdowns all year.

This was the first year that the Suburban Conference has had a women's Cross Country Team. Summit's dual meet record was 6-2, two losses against New Providence, and two forfeits against Millburn. Summit finished fourth in the Suburban Conference meet at New Providence, missing third place by one point. Summit finished fifteenth out of twenty teams in the New Jersey Sectional Meet at Garret Mountain in West Paterson.

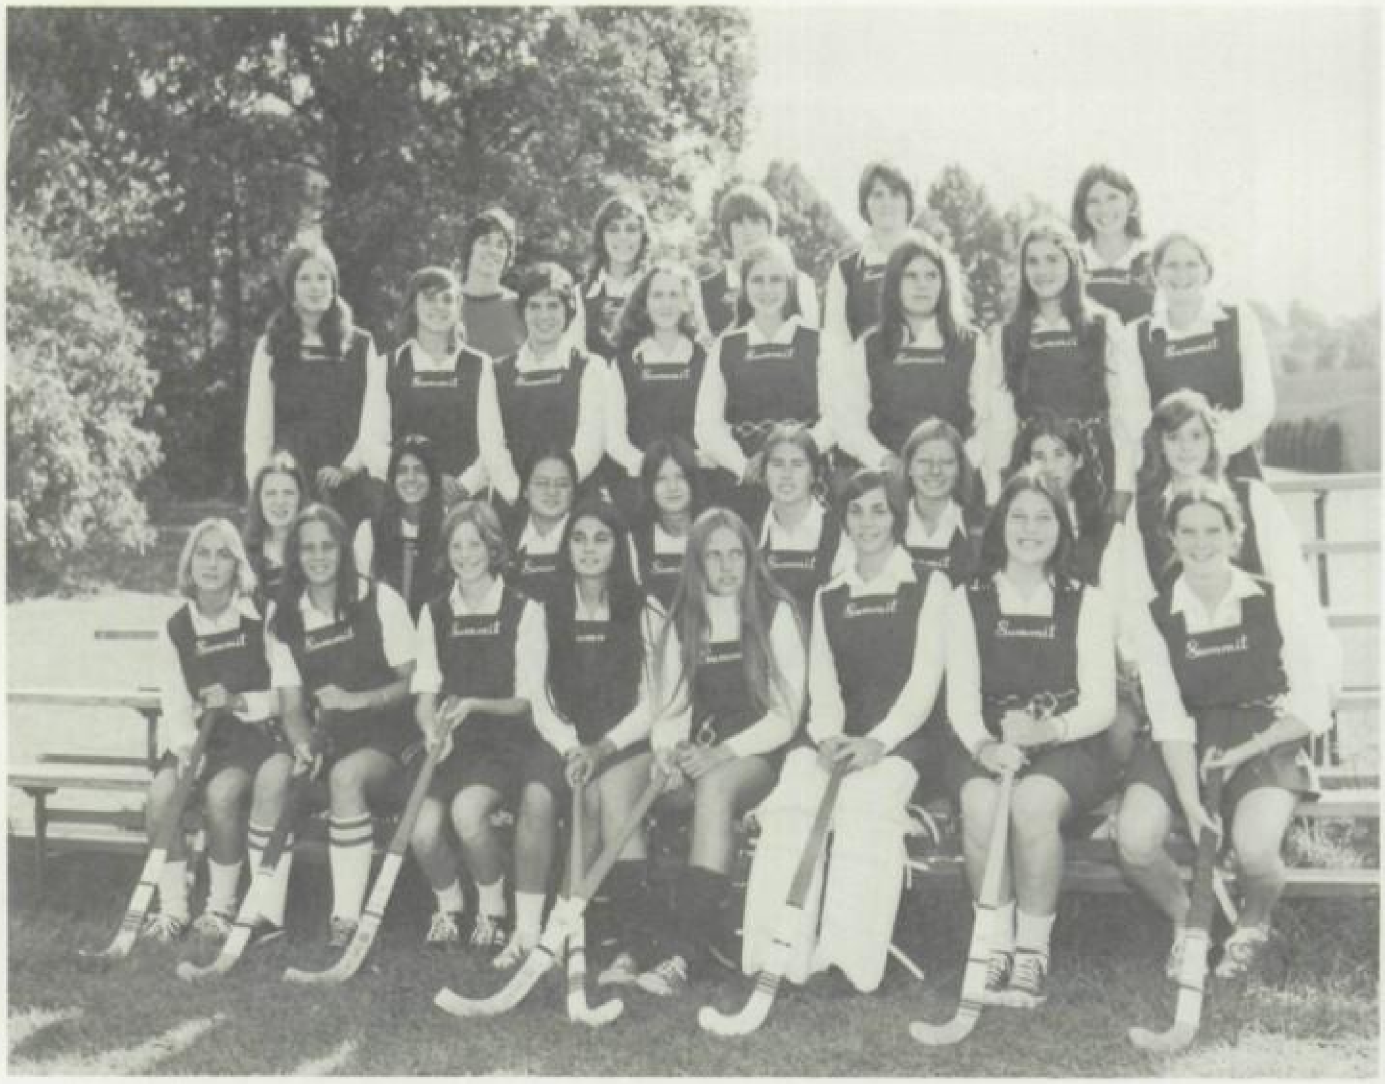
FIELD HOCKEY

For the first time ever, the Suburban Conference Title was won by the Varsity Field Hockey Team on November 2 when they defeated Millburn High School in the final conference game. Their record in the conference was 5-1-0.

With a new coach, Mrs. Patterson, and new uniforms, the team consistently won their conference games.



VARSITY FIELD HOCKEY TEAM—First Row, left to right: E. McCurdy, L. Tanner, M. Lannon, A. Valenziano (Co-Capt.), B. Palmer, G. Miller, E. Lichenstein, K. Brett. Second Row: C. Ahern, C. Bennett, A. MEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM—First Row, left to right: R. Jackson, D. Poole, T. Gibbons (Capt.), J. Merchant, R. Paxson, A. Colton. Second Row: E. Lyons (Coach), C. Johnson, T. Mahoney, M. Horn. Third Row: T. Odell, D. Connelly, R. Boyd.

The 1974-75 season was expected to be a rebuilding one and in this respect was fruitful. However, with a record of 2-20 it was a disappointing year. The team will be losing only one senior, Tom Gibbons, the team's captain and second leading scorer. The rest of the team will be coming back next year and expect to do well after the experience they have gained over this past season. Dave Poole, the team's leader in scoring and rebounding, will be expected to carry a majority of the scoring load along with John Merchant and Ricky Jackson. Poole and Merchant have been elected co-captains and hope to lead Summit to a Suburban Conference Championship next year.

The J.V. Basketball Team captured the Suburban Conference Championship with a record of 12-2. The overall record was 15-5. The team was led by captain Craig Johnson, who was the top scorer (169 pts.), top rebounder (181), and tops in assists (55). Other outstanding players were: Terry Mahoney (Guard—149 pts., 53 assists), Tim Odell (Guard—122 pts., 47 assists), Dave Connolly (Guard—104 pts., 86 rebounds, 49 points), Ron Paxson (Forward—130 pts., 91 rebounds), Mike Horn (Forward—110 pts., 137 rebounds), Rich Boyd (Center—88 pts., 101 rebounds). The team set two records: most rebounds in a season (909) and most rebounds in a game (71).

This year, the women's basketball team can boast a 500 conference season with a 6 and 6 record, 7-9 overall. Aside from the improvement in seasonal record from last year, the team will be returning 11 of 14 players. Of the varsity letter winners, 4 of 7 are sophomores and will have an additional two years of varsity playing time. The outlook for Summit's women's team is promising, and the existing threat to other schools was made apparent this year by the performance of these determined, hard-working girls. This year, Summit's team made their presence known and respected by all opponents.

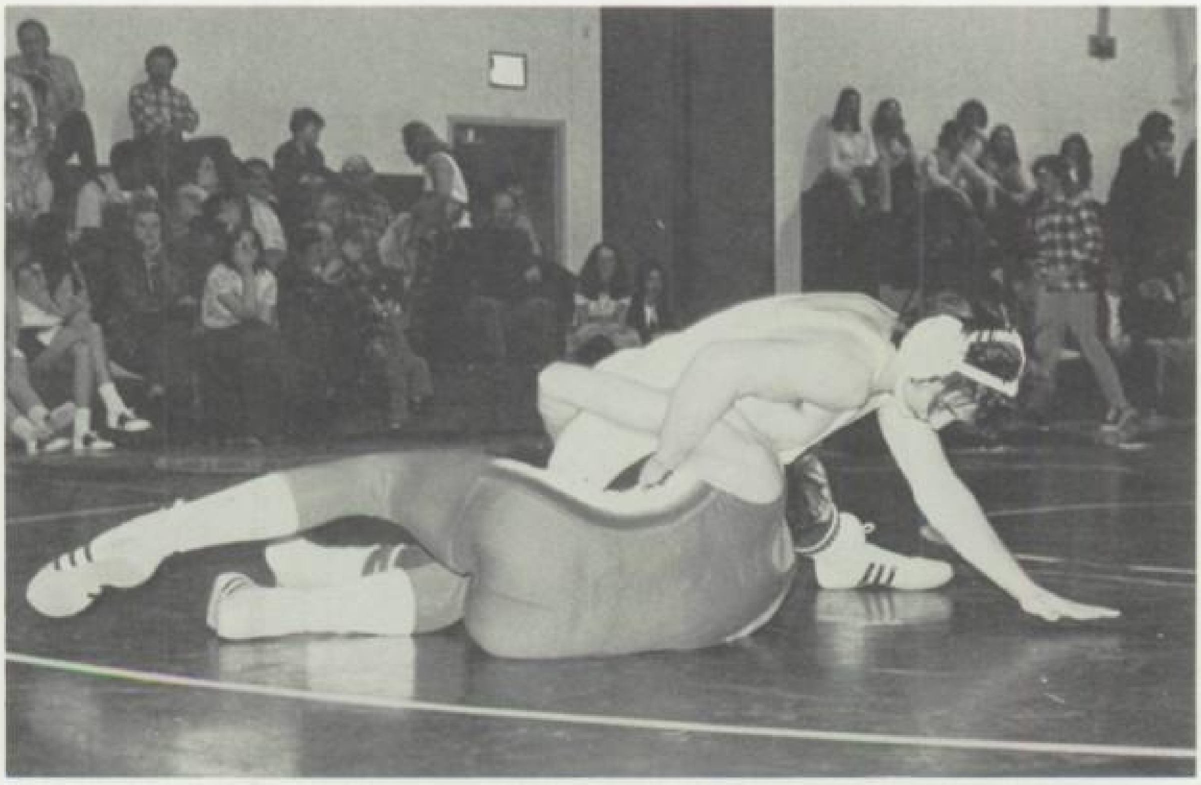
VARSITY WRESTLING TEAM—First Row, left to right: D. Dempsey, M. Schipani, G. Steinhauser (Co-capt.), E. Price, A. Schipani. Second Row: D. Goldblatt, M. Sarno, M. Dresdner, J. Ficchi, B. Cabibi. Third Row: R. Ostrowski (Coach), D. Pease. Missing from picture: P. Closs (Co-capt.).



The 1974-75 varsity wrestling team was young, inexperienced, yet talented. However, it was a disappointing season. During the complete schedule, there were a total of seven different captains. Injuries plagued the team throughout the season. Despite these drawbacks, they managed to regroup, finishing the season with a record of four wins, nine losses. Several wrestlers displayed dedication, enthusiasm and a desire to win. Those individuals inspired the remainder of the team.

Only two seniors completed the season, Greg Steinhauser and Peter Closs. Greg, who finished first in the districts, was a promising contender for a state title until he unexpectedly injured his knee and could not participate in the regionals. Peter also proved inspiring as he finished second in the districts at Millburn and contended in the regional championships at Union.

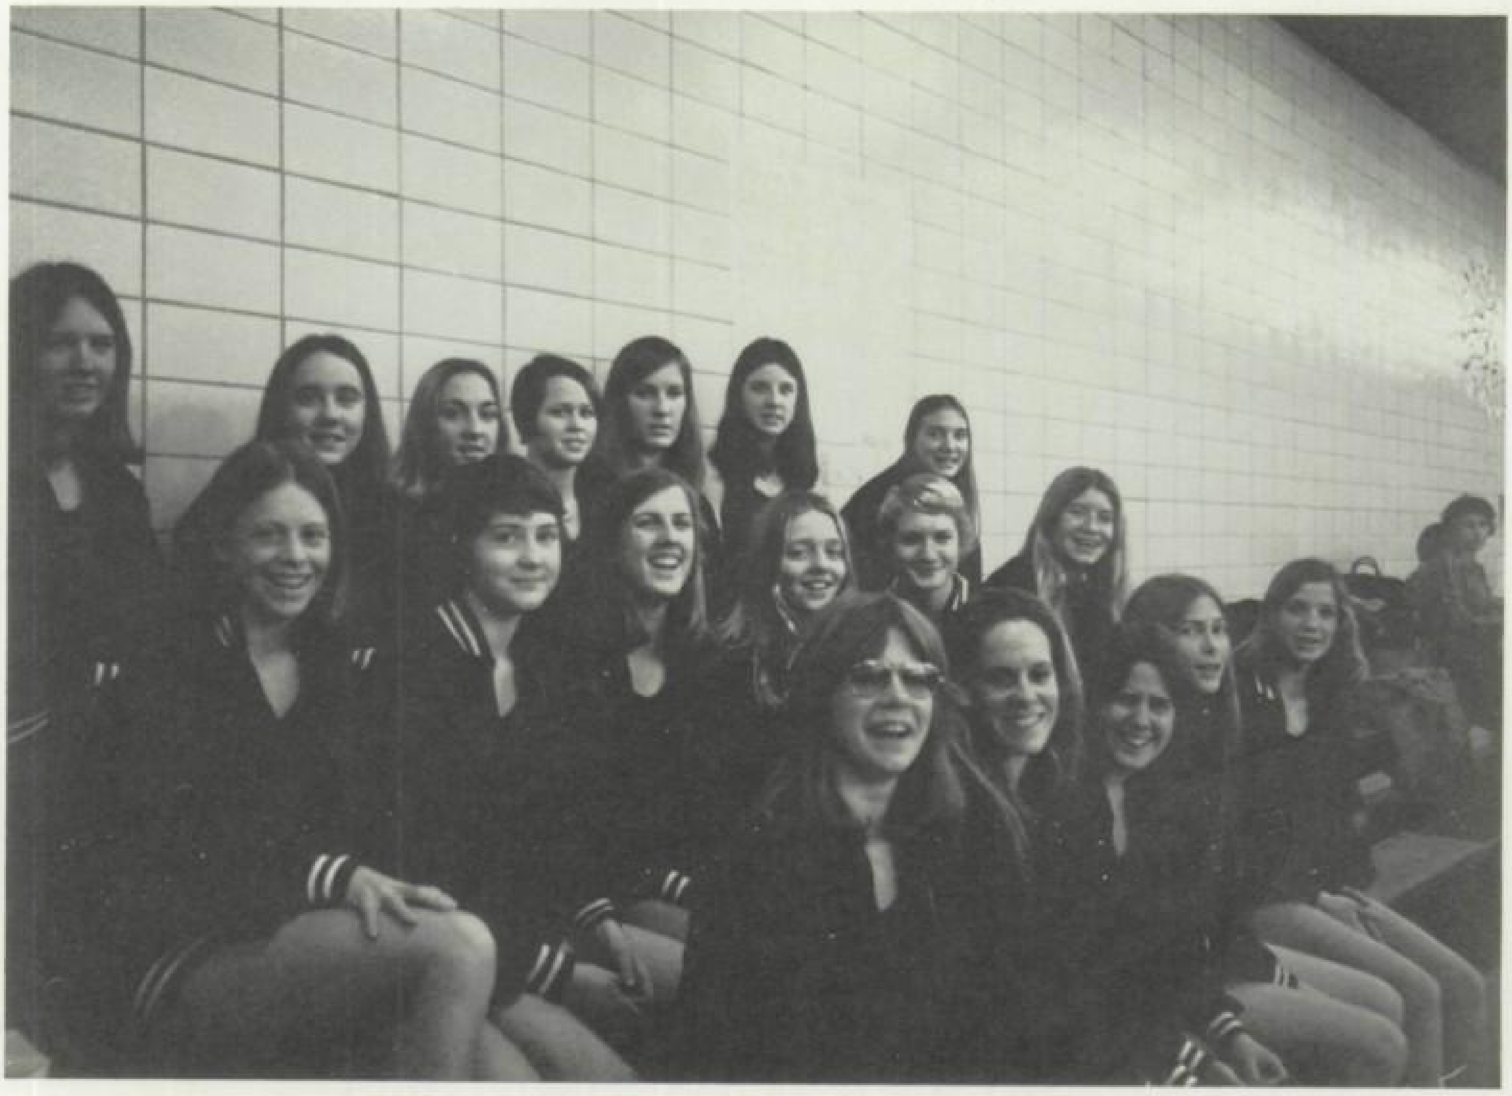
The official J.V. record of 4 wins and 8 losses, is by no means indicative of the quality of the individuals on the team. The J.V.'s were hampered by injuries, illnesses, and an acute lack of personnel.

A more revealing statistic is the total record of individual bouts; 40-40-5, an even .500 record; which indicates that our wrestlers were generally on a par with the wrestlers of other teams, despite a large amount of inexperience.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING



WOMEN'S VARSITY SWIMMING TEAM—First Row, left to right: E. Tubach, L. Bartz (Co-capt.), W. Armstrong (Co-capt.), M. Neville, E. Paytas. Second Row: M. Lanning, J. Paulson, M. Closs, M. Clabby, C. Schwanhausser, M. Mason. Third Row: G. Coddington, K. Guthrie, M. McCurdy, S. Boyce, S. Callaghan, C. Hannas, S. Thames.

The women's swim team finished their season with a 8-3-1 record, defeating such schools as Columbia, West Orange and Toms River South. This was the first year for the women to swim the same events as the men, including the 500 yard freestyle (20 laps), and through hard work and dedication the women were able to set seven new team records. Three of the new records were set Saturday, March 8th at the State Swim Meet, where the team finished 7th out of 40 teams. Carolyn Schwanhausser finished 2nd in the 50 yard freestyle with a time of 25.5 and fifth in the 100 yard backstroke with a time of 1:06.0 and the freestyle relay of Laura Bartz, Molly Mason, Mary Jane Neville and Carolyn Schwanhausser set a new record with a time of 4:13.1. The other team records achieved were the:

100 yd. butterfly—C. Schwanhausser, 1:07.5
200 yd. individual medley—C. Schwanhausser, 2:22.3
500 yd. freestyle—E. Tubach, 6:49.6
100 yd. freestyle—C. Schwanhausser, 58.2
100 yd. breaststroke—L. Ryder, 1:25.4

To say that this was a rewarding year for Summit High's swim team would be an understatement. Each individual pushed himself to his limits and went beyond his threshold to new successes.

The high point of the season was an away meet at Cranford. We anticipated a very close score. The meet began rather inauspiciously with our first relay being disqualified. Nevertheless, each individual tapped some inner source and exceeded even our most optimistic wishes for his performance. At that point, we were certainly a "team" in the truest sense of the word. This was even more exciting to see than the overwhelming victory that resulted.

Second Row: W. Wheeler (Coach), A. Rodriguez (Manager), J. Beams, S. Breitenfeld, P. Piccione, P. Wolcott, M. Marcelliano, O. Mortada, V. Marcantonio (Manager).

The bowling team is on top for their third Suburban Conference Championship. In a hotly contested season the Summit Keglers, in second place going into the last match of the season, defeated New Providence 2 out of 3 games, which put both teams in first place.

One of the highlights of the season was Marc Marcelliano's school and conference record-shattering game of 258.

The Varsity team owes a great deal of its strength to the J.V. teams, which kept constant pressure on the first-stringers. And, from time to time, the J.V.'s stepped in to help with key victories.

Well, Well, Well, Well, Well! Another year gone by and here we are! I'll never forget the basket ball games this year! That one time when you and Craig left in the middle and came back so bombed it was pathetic! I thought you were going to fall through the blechers! Anyway, I really wished we were in classes together but I still enjoyed seeing your face in the halls!!! I like your hair cut, really I do! I hope you know I feel honored being asked to write in your book but I don't have anything else to say! I hope to see you this summer especially at the fireworks! + I'll never, never forget that year you pushed me down the h

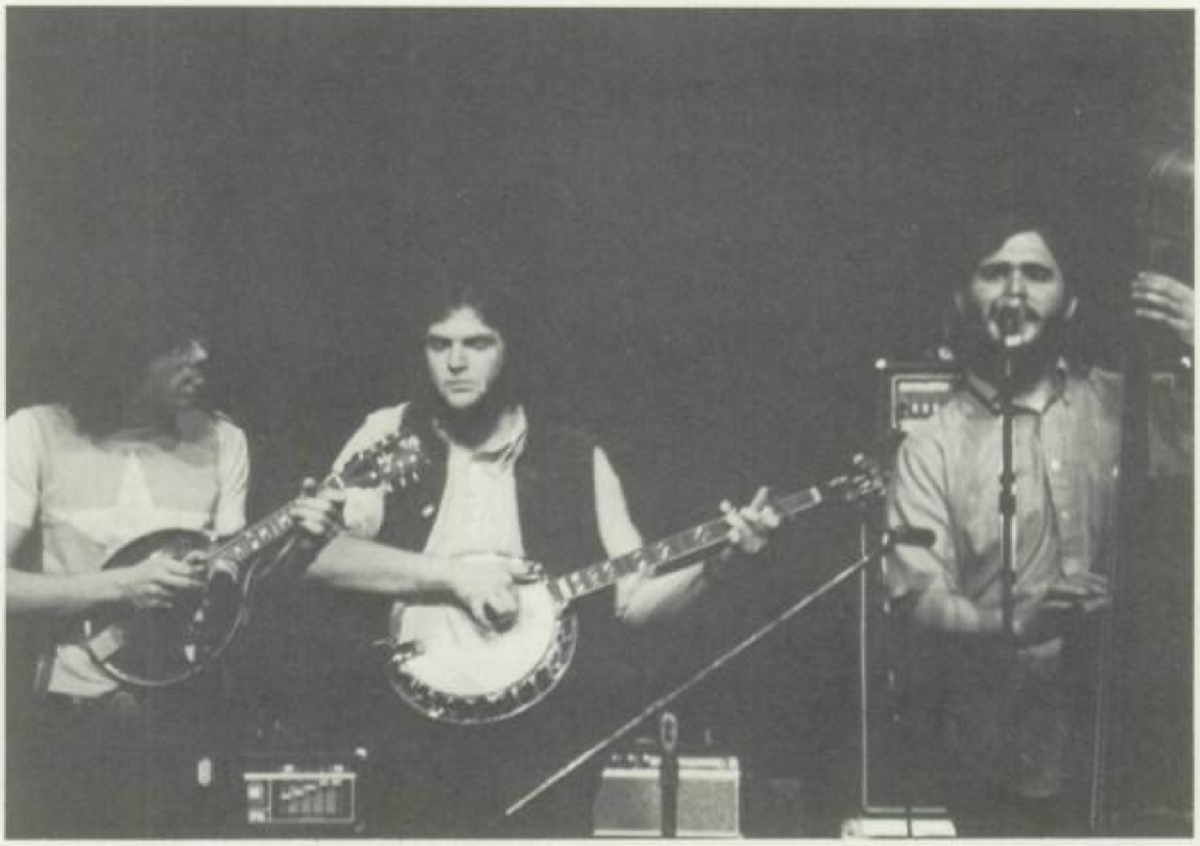
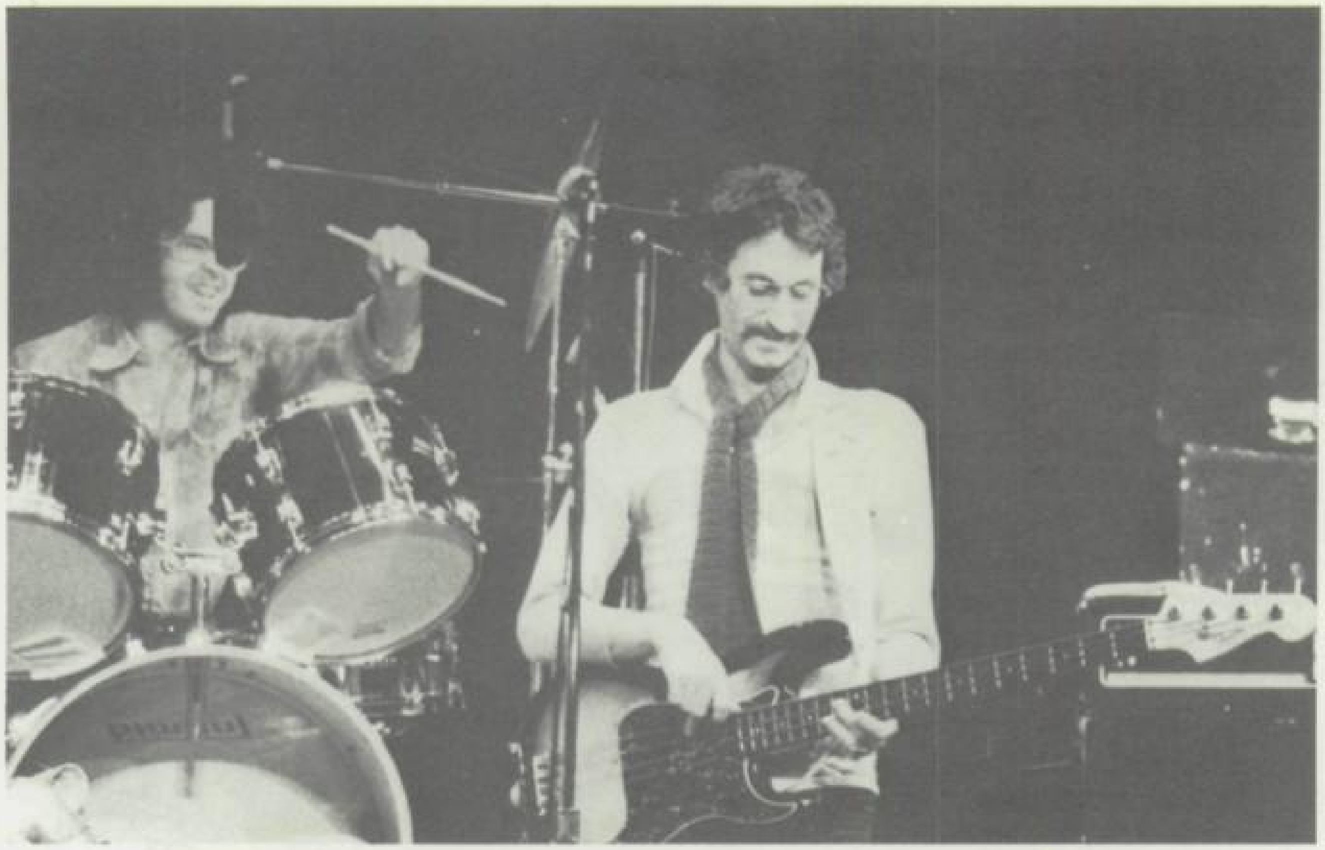
HIGHLIGHTS

BOTTLE HILL and JOHN SEBASTIAN

The concert held November 4 was a strange mixture of success and failure. Although the ticket sales were mediocre at best and the Student Council lost nearly $1100, very few suggested that the decision to present John Sebastian and Bottle Hill in concert was a mistake.

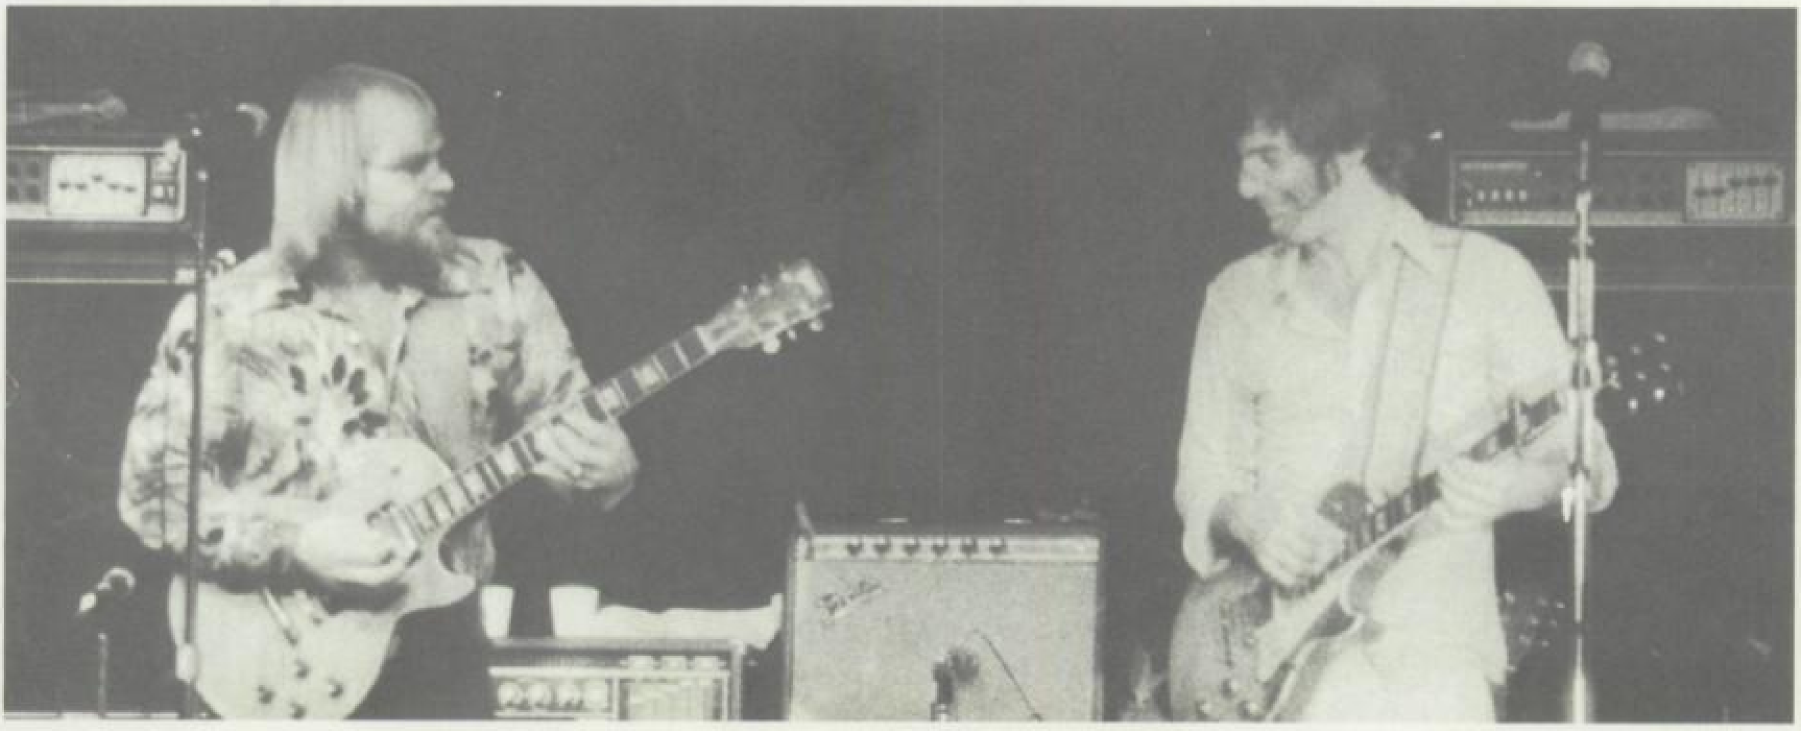
Many people could not really comprehend that this concert would really come off after the Renaissance and Strawbs disasters, but once everyone entered the auditorium, the sight of spotlights, sound equipment, and instruments convinced the skeptics. Bottle Hill took the stage a half hour late and warmed the crowd with their exciting blue grass music, most notably a great rendition of "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."





After intermission John Sebastian appeared and put on an amazing show, brilliantly mixing his old and new works. He played such tunes as "Face of Appalachia" from his new album and the old Lovin' Spoonful numbers "Daydream" and "Do You Believe in Magic?" The show's highlight was Sebastian's first encore when he performed a wild "Summer in the City," which brought much of the crowd to its feet, dancing madly.

Once it was all over, although some disputed the concert's overall success, none could doubt that it was a great experience for those involved.



MADWOMAN OF CHAILLOT

"The Madwoman of Chaillot," a delightful mixed up comedy, was the fall play and our first introduction to the directing abilities of Mr. Bob Lowy. Being anything but a typical high school play, "Madwoman" met with mixed reactions, but also with that certain success unique to new adventures. Debra Sanborn as the Madwoman of Chaillot and James Harte as the Ragpicker were outstanding members of a cast made up of faces both familiar and unfamiliar to Summit High's stage. The set was imaginative; the production was professional. Though the play suffered due to hospitalization of James Wyman and Larry Dillon, its zany plot and lively characters defined it as a sparkling event in the year's theatre experiences.

SUMMIT H.S. MARCHING UNIT FEATURED AT NEW YORK GIANT GAME

On November 24, the Summit H.S. Marching Band Unit was featured in an outstanding performance at the N.Y. Giants-St. Louis Cardinals pro football game.

The 185 member marching unit and approximately 150 supporters traveled to the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Conn., to be featured at halftime before a rabid crowd of over 50,000 football fans and isolated television coverage throughout the country. They also presented the colors and performed the National Anthem at pre-game ceremonies.

The band unit was chosen from several hundred high school bands throughout the country.

Homecoming '74, which took place over Thanksgiving weekend, was as big a success as all those who worked on it hoped it would be. The festivities included the parade, pep rally, Thanksgiving Day football game, powderpuff game, and dance. The highlight of the first night's activities was the announcement of the 1974 Homecoming Queen, Erin Geddis, and her court. Thanksgiving brought about a football defeat at the hands of the New Providence Pioneers in N.P. On Saturday the Seniors' solid victory over the Juniors in the powderpuff game led up to that evening's dance, which featured The Revenge of the Laulau. All the students who contributed time and effort to Homecoming '74 saw their work develop into a successful, fun weekend of activities for the students of Summit High.

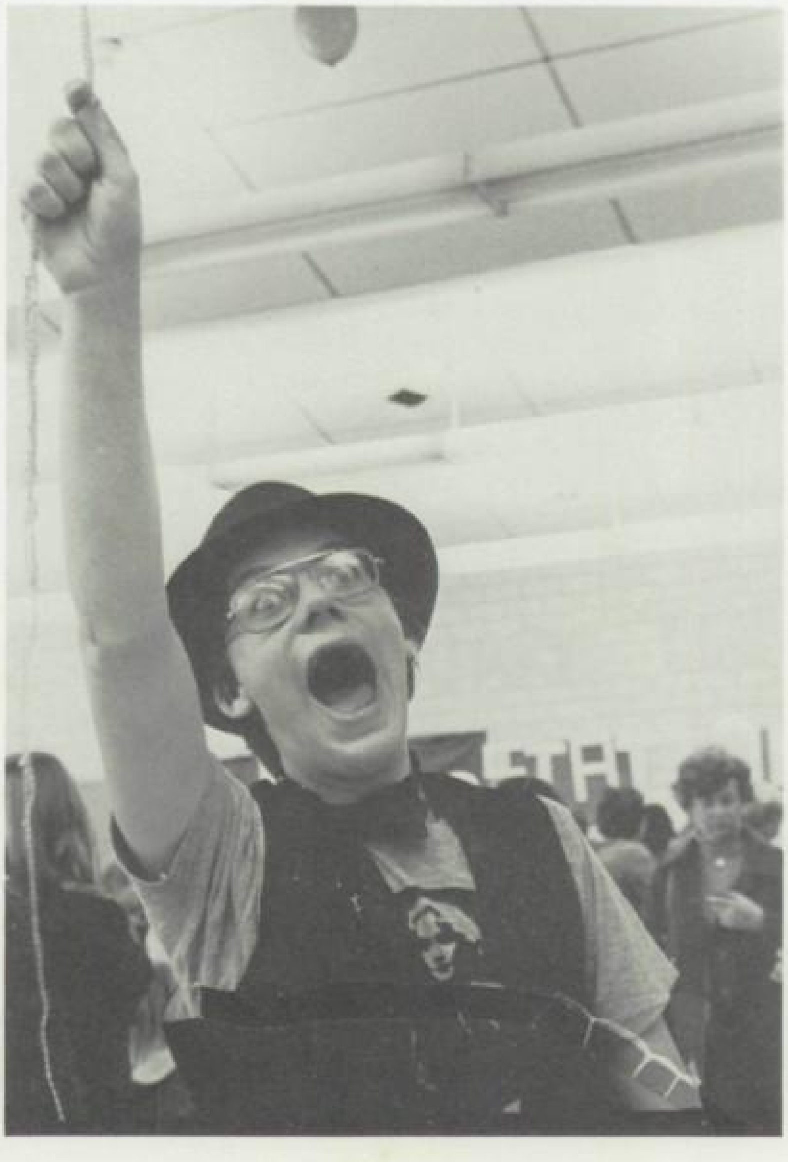
HOLIDAY CONCERT

On December 19, the music department gave an excellent concert. The Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Thomas Appert, played several selections, two of which were "Air" and "Allegheny Holiday." Next came the Chorus, conducted by Mr. Vernon Post. A few of the numbers they sang were "The Music Makers," "Carol of the Bells" and "Hallelujah, Amen." The last group to perform was the Concert Band, conducted by Mr. Angelo Merola. Some of the pieces they played were "Joy to the World," "Two Israeli Dances," and for the finale, "Festive." The Holiday Concert was a very pleasurable evening.

CARNIVAL '75

The first of its kind at the high school, the Winter Carnival which took place on March first proved to be a success in many ways. The fourteen booths were sponsored by the three classes, the Tempest, Photography, and various other organizations. They included games, contests, and food. The Student Council, which sponsored the whole event, presented one of the main attractions—the "Jupiter Jump."

The entire event involved the efforts of a great many people, all of whom worked together to make the Carnival a worthwhile endeavor. The financial success, constructive efforts, and generally enjoyable experiences of Winter Carnival '75 will hopefully make the event become a yearly tradition.



"Fiddler on the Roof"

This year, the Summit High School G. O. presented "Fiddler on the Roof." The countless hours of hard work spent by over a hundred enthusiastic people were rewarded by two near sell-out performances. The curtains opened on a show that must definitely be placed among the finest in the history of G. O. shows, and the audiences responded in standing ovations both nights.

The technical aspects of the production, including set design and lighting, were professional as well as creative. Musically, the show, including its orchestra and chorus, met the same standards of excellence. And of course, the acting was outstanding. All these elements came together in exuberance and the total production reached a high level of superiority as entertainment and as an achievement.

I'm writing on this page w/ Looney Tunes on it because some of the *things we've done in the past years were looney!
Always remember our *"pie in your face"! we'll have to keep celebrating it as long as we're in school together.
You're a great friend to have, I hope you'll always be mine! What ever you're doing over the summer - have a great one!

Mrs. Budd signed my yrbook, in by her picture. She said good luck next yr. I feel like spitting in her face. But it was a good class anyway. Spanish wasn't bad either. "Don't forget Mr. B saying "Just wait until the final exam, and see if you pass." and everyone laughing in his face. And my pen is from spain!

See you next year.

-Kathy Clabby-

Timmy

I Haded you in all my classes because your a trouble maker Ha Ha

P.S Get Michael Wilkerson

Bryan

"Perhaps all yearbooks should end with the word 'and'.

Perhaps they should begin with the word 'and', too.

It would remind us that no experience ever begins; there was always something that preceded it.

What really began, for us, was our awareness of something going on.

At the end, the word 'and . . .' would remind us that no book ever really ends—something more will happen after.

Thus, it may be said that we live in the world of 'and'.

There is always more to start with than we can take into account.

There is always more to say than we can possibly say.

There is always more to end with than we can imagine.

You are now invited to enter the world of 'and'."

—Unknown

Tim,

I am not much of a [redacted] writer But we've known Each other ever since my 2nd YEAR in [redacted] third grade. We've had great times together. Even though we' were not In a lot of classes together, so keep [redacted] cool, And stay yourself,

Tim,

Mrs. Budds class was a real bummer this year. Parts weren't too bad, beating on Craig and other shit. Have a good summer, See you in the fall

* Tim - I didn't know your nickname was BABY HUEY! I'll never forget that. Tim, I didn't think any school would ever put in the same class. I would think it said on our records, don't ever put these two together or instant disaster! I'm sure Miss Maidus would vow to that, don't you think? Tim, what can I say, there's so much I can't seem to get it down on paper! We have been through so much, 10 yrs. of experience to be exact! That's a long time! Tim, for all the times I've kidded you, you know I'm only joshing! But then again I haven't cracked on you nearly as many times as you have cracked on me! And you know it! You never heard me call you an "Italien Tomatoe!" Did you? Or what about all the times you have ridiculed me in front of the class?! I'll never forget the time you were bookin' around the house and your father was hot on your tracks swingin' a broom at your hide, and all the Saturdays we would see Clarence outside mowing the lawn and you were nowhere to be found! Well, with your new high class house you don't have to worry about mowing the lawn, only raking the rocks! (I'm only kidding!) Well, Tim I think I talked your ear off long enough. I would like to wish you and you do deserve the best of luck in everything you do. With your personality and attitude it won't be much of a struggle to achieve whatever it is that your goal is! The best of luck to you.

Your Italien Tomato forever,
PATTI

Timmy,

You didn't have to hit me over the head, I would have signed it willingly! This is really unbelievable. Here we are in High School, and I can still remember everything we used to do in Roosevelt. Remember playing school and being sent to the boiler room when we were bad? You still crack on people just like you used. You used to crack on my shoes and my hair all the time. I thought you were mean then, but when I think about it now, I must have been so funny (as a kid, not now!) to look at. This has been a really great year. I'm glad that you were in my class. Whenever you spoke up and contributed to the discussion, you would go on and on and on! I never thought that you would have so much to say! Do you remember Mr. Mayer and his monkey ears? I never really liked that man. Good luck always and I'll see you over the summer. I hope that we will always be friends and keep in touch.

love

During the course of our tenth years receiving a fine education we have been through many new experiences this year. This summer last we ran our butts off and Howie didn't give me shit and gave you more. Remember 4 games 14 quarters. Going through the fall suffering a few injuries we became idle going into winter sports. What else was there to do but to test our abilities in the use of alcohol. I will never forget that Valentines day. Boy O' boy and I do mean boy! BOY! were we blitzed. This was when we really started to hit the partys and began to become serious brewers. Remember we said we would make beer chaines. Well by now mine reaches around the world. This year we have not seen each other as much as last but possibly this will change to the more. We have had some great discussions ranging of anything you can think of. Next year when spring time rolls around you and I will have to throw a joint party for the class of '77 at either one of our houses. This year has been so fantastic and I hope next year it will be moreso than ever. Football will be a trial and we deffinatly will be state CHAMPIONS laughing at the soccer players as they laughed at us. Peace be with you.

P.S. Marco Polo. - Would you like a cocktail.

Tired, Tim, The, Thud,

Well I hate write the same old bullshit in every yearbook. I'll try to make this one different. History sucked. It was booooring. You better come out for track next year. We need weight men. See you in the near future.

Tim,

Believe me, it's an honor to write in your yearbook as that you are such an understanding and courteous person. It's been really great going to school with you these past 4 years - may the next 2 be the best. Good luck in you future endeavors and take care

Love always,
Kathy

Tim, us
It's been real and it's been fun,
but it hasn't been real fun!
Remember me, maybe someday
I'll make it to the top. (I hope.)
See ya next year.
Love,
Sue Gilman

Timmy,
This has been a funny year. I have never met any one so ticklish in my entire life. And I'll never let you forget that you're terribly ticklish. You were a pain in history, but it made it much more interesting. Your really very nice, sweet, and kind. Remember never hit a girl, even when she provokes you. Have a good summer, and I'll see you next year!

Love,
Laura

Timmy,
Good Luck next year and the years after. Keep straight & smile for a smile can never be kept it must be given away. Stay sweet;
May God Bless.
Love,
